LMPD Makes Significant Arrest in Homicide

Today the Louisville Metro Police Homicide and Fugitive Apprehension Units arrested Tysean Malique Effinger D.O.B. (4/29/2000) for the January 25th, 2024 murder of Kevin Ardis in the 2100 block of West Muhammad Ali Blvd. Mr. Effinger was taken into custody in the 4300 block of Newport Road.

Mr. Effinger is charged with Murder and Convicted Felon in Possession of a Handgun. He has been lodged in Metro Corrections.

Our original statement from 1/25/24:

"Just past 7pm last night, 1st Division officers were dispatched on a reported shooting in the 2100 block of W. Muhammed Ali Blvd. Officers arrived to find an adult male subject suffering from a gunshot wound. EMS and Officers performed first aid on scene, until the victim was transported to University of Louisville Hospital, in serious condition. This office has been informed the victim of last night's shooting has succumbed to his wounds and is deceased. LMPD's homicide unit is taking over this case and will be leading the investigation. There are no known suspects at this time though, so we ask anybody with any information to please call our anonymous tip line at 574-LMPD."
