Our original release on 02/26/24:

"Just before noon on Sunday 2/25/24, Third Division officers were dispatched on the report of a person down in the 800 blk of Inverness Ave. Officers arrived to discover an adult male subject obviously deceased from apparent injuries due to blunt force trauma. LMPD's homicide unit has responded and is investigating. During the initial investigation it was discovered the victim's car was missing and an attempt to locate was issued for the car. The car was discovered this morning in Florida (apparently the Miami area). The operator of the vehicle in Florida is considered a person of interest in this case, but it is still too early to label the operator a 'suspect'."
